

SHOW REGULATIONS

1. All entries must be made on the Society's official entry form
2. The Council of the British Gladiolus Society reserves the right to refuse any entry
3. Exhibits must have been grown by an entrant and must be shown without supports or pins or being stuck by artificial means. Any supportive material shown above the level of the vase will result in disqualification
4. No flowers should be placed on to the show bench until they are ready to be judged
5. All cultivars should be named, seedlings should be numbered and classified. Failure to do either will not disqualify but may lead to loss of points in close competition. Cards for this purpose will be provided by the Society
6. All vases and floret boxes will be supplied by the Society and all spikes should be staged ONE SPIKE TO A VASE unless otherwise stated. Baskets to be supplied by the exhibitor
7. A greater or lesser number of spikes than is called for in the schedule will disqualify the exhibit
8. Exhibitors may enter more than one exhibit per class apart from Class 1 which counts towards the BGS National Championship – therefore only one entry per exhibitor is allowed. An Exhibitor may win more than one prize, but for points calculation only the highest placing obtained in each class to count
9. All classes are open to all, with the exception of Novice Classes, for which see relevant qualifications
10. All classes will be judged in accordance with British Gladiolus Society Rules
11. Any objections must be made in writing and handed to the Hon Show Secretary (or in his absence a steward) by 4.00pm on the first day of the show, accompanied by a £5 deposit which will be returned if, after consideration, the objection is found to be bona fide
12. All exhibits, personal property, etc will be left at owner's risk and the BGS will not be liable for any compensation for loss or damage suffered during erection, dismantling or of the Show itself
13. No exhibit or prize card may be removed before the official close of the show which is at 4.00pm on Sunday 17 August 2025. All prize cards will be forwarded by the Hon Show Secretary to winners unable to collect them
14. The Council of the BGS reserves the right to decide all points not necessarily provided for in these Show Regulations and the Hon Show Secretary has the authority to act on its behalf in matters of urgency
15. Insurance of trophies will be undertaken by the British Gladiolus Society
16. All trophies awarded must be signed for and a contact telephone number left and must be returned by 30 June next year to the person named as Hon Show Secretary unless otherwise agreed with the Hon Show Secretary
17. Engraving of trophies is at the discretion of winners at their own expense
